

Book Signing and Lecture on Porcelain

Thursday, November 13th

1:00PM

Tea to follow with Questions and Answers Session

Come & Meet Wendy Kvalheim

President and CEO of Mottahedeh

Wendy Kvalheim, President and CEO of Mottahedeh, will speak on the history and art of porcelain design and will be signing copies of her book, "From Drawing Board to Dinner Table".

Mottahedeh is one of the nation's foremost manufacturers of fine dinnerware, tabletop accessories and giftware.

Lecture Topics Include

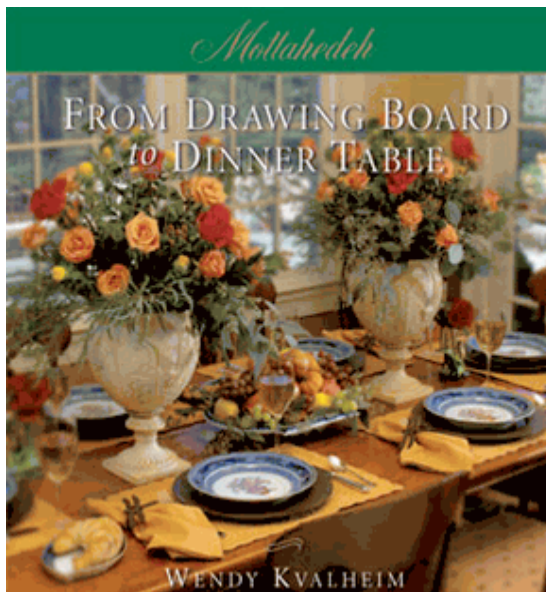

Presidents as Designers and Purveyors of Porcelain;

Their influence over porcelain and pattern on the American Dining Table.

Wendy will also speak about the friendship between the Rockefellers and Mildred Mottahedeh.

The Rockefellers Influence over the American Porcelain Market

The Rockefellers also played a huge role in the influence of American Taste in Porcelain through commissioning reproductions of antique, museum quality pieces of porcelains with Mildred Mottahedeh.

The Binns Gallery 2nd Floor

R.S.V.P. to (757) 229-3391
to reserve your seat.

Mon.-Sat. 9:30-6:00

Sun. 12:30 – 5:00

Merchants Square

Williamsburg, VA ■ 757-229-3391